

If you could know just one thing about your future, what would it be?

When you think about your future, what's one thing that feels uncertain?

When things feel out of control to you, how do you typically try to take control?

Read Hebrews 11:1-3 "Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see. This is what the ancients were commended for. By faith we understand that the universe was formed at God's command, so that what is seen was not made out of what was visible."

What's one thing you know about Jesus that you can trust?

How might trusting in Jesus bring peace to your chaos?

This week, what would it look like for you to trust Jesus in the face of that uncertainty?
